From the Farmington Times: "About 11 o'clock Sunday morning automobile loads of St. Louis people began to arrive at the St. Francois Hotel in this city for dinner, and by 12 oclock about 60 of them were eating dinner there. The party was en route to their homes from a visit to Arcadia, where they had spent several days at that popular resort. This large party, coming without any advance notice, caused quite a bustle about the St. Francois in making the preparations for feeding them, but the proprietor, H. D. Baker, was equal to the emergency, serving them well and sending them on their way well pleased with the service that had been rendered them."

more. He again declared he was an officer of the law, pulled a gun from his pocket and began telling of all the things he would do. The fact that the accident was really unavoidable and amounted to nothing rendered his conduct all the more reprehensible. Finally he permitted the Ironton automobilists to come on their way home, after making a bluff about home, after making a bluff about taking some names and intimating future prosecution. In the car with him were three ladies. Such is the account given us by the occupants of the Ironton car, and they are reputable, reliable citizens.

Obituary.

Died-At St. Louis, Mo., Sunday October 22, 1916, at 6:00 o'clock P. M. John A. Kerwin, of Arcadia, aged 60 years, 5 months and 17 days. Although Mr. Kerwin had not been n good health for some time past, his death was sudden and unexpected. The day previous he had gone fishing, and on his return home in the evening he was seized with severe illness. His son, Dr. William Kerwin, who lives in the city, was notified, and he came and took his father to St. Louis on the Sunday morning Sunshine Special. That evening the end came, and John A. Kerwin departed this world forever.

Mr. Kerwin was born in New Jersey, and at an early age came West. He was a resident of Iron county thirty-

I met with a very bright lawyer Drake Watson, from New London, Mo., at the Bismarck Hotel, Sunday before last. He was a member of our last legislature and will be a candidate for Speaker of the House in our next Legislature. He is making speeches at Marquand, Lutesville and other towns in Southeast Missouri. While six of us were at the souri. While six of us were at the breakfast table, he said, "suppose we take a straw vote," and there were five Democrats and one Republican, but one of the Democrats said he had been a Democrat all his life but would vote for Hughes this year. Lawyer Watson said, "my friend, will you take an oath that you ever voted a Democratic vote in your life?" The man wilted. man wilted.

I was walking down by Emerson

Park in Ironton Sunday evening. Seeing those cannons brought back my war time days. I served in Southall's Battery from Charlottes-ville, Virginia, one year. Have seen them send their missiles of death in the battles of Yorktown, Williams-burg and other places. I then exchanged with a man by the name of Joel Swope, took his place in the 5th Virginia Cavalry, and the next day he was killed in the battle of Cold Har-bour, around Richmond. I will never forget one battle that I was in. The man that held his thumb on the vent was excited, and when Lewis Walker went to put the powder and ball in it went off blowing off both hands of this man. Lewis Walker is living in Virginia today.

A very sad accident happened to Add Reese's wife at Annapolis early Saturday morning about 4 o'clock. She started to walk down the stair steps in the Hotel, with two lamps in her hands. She fell, and as it happen ed both lights went out. She was badly bruised and is now bed-fast.

I was invited to attend a supper given by the daughters of the Con-federacy at Farmington last Friday night. All the old Confederate solliers were invited. Sorry I could not attend. Rev. J. J. Smith, wife and daughter, assisted by Rev. A. Daxter, pastor of the M. E. Church, are conducting a Revival here. Large crowds are at tending and we believe there will be great results, Rev. Smith and wife are from Kentucky and are great workers in a revival. Mrs. Smith leads in the singing having a strong voice; her daughter is the organist. She has organized a Senior and Junior Choir and the music is fine. Everybody is invited to attend the meeting and help to make our town better.

The W. C. T. U. met on College Hill Saturday afternoon with Mrs. H. G. Harrison. A very interesting pro-gram was rendered, Miss Lora Tolleson being the leader. Quite a number of the members were present. The "White Ribboner's" are strong here and when you join the W. C. T. U you are a member of the World's Organization of White Ribboners. If all the dollars that are wasted for liquor, gambling and useless amusements were put to a good use how much brighter the world would be for all humanity.

The Sunday Schools of the town will unite and render a Temperance program at the M. E. Church, on Sunday, November 5th. Everybody s invited, especially the voters. R. H. Stevenson, the County President, left this morning on No. 10, to

Hines, Jackson; O. L. Munger of

with their sister, Mrs. W. D. Sitze. Tom Angel and wife from Piedmont were in town Monday looking after their property here.

Mrs. John Stevenson, Miss Ora Lovelace and Miss Neva Lane spent Sunday at Sabula with Mrs. Lee Dunn. Mr. Roy Taylor from Coldwater spent Sunday here with Miss Jewel Reed.

Mr. Frank Paullis from Coldwater spent Sunday with Miss Lena Steven-Mrs. Walter Lovelace and baby are visiting relatives here.

Dock Davidson went to Granite ville Sunday to accompany his mother home. While visiting with her home. daughter, Mrs. Kammholz, a Graniteville, the latter had the mis-Kammholz, fortune to lose their home and con-tents by fire. Grandma Davidson lost all her clothing and it is quite a loss to them.

Men are at work this morning putting the roof on the Baptist Church. The people were very liberal in their donations for this work, and we thank everybody for their kind-ness. It is to the interest of the town to keep up our churches. ISAAC.

Four Drown in Big River Sunday.

Advertsement.

George Noonan, county clerk of Washington county, his wife, her mother, Mrs. Mary Campbell, and Wade Richardson, a boy of 10, years, all of Potosi, were drowned in Big River while attempting to cross at the Blackwell Ford Sunday evening The party had been spending tha day at the home of Dr. J. B. Steinmetz and had started to Blackwell to take train No. 2 to return to Potosi. There had been rain during the day but not enough to raise the river, but heavy rains on the head of the creek had caused a three foot rise. Lindell Lester of St. Louis was driving the party to the station and it is said be objected to going into the swollen stream but Mr. Noonan took the lines and drove in. The current is swift at the ford. The rise made the water deep enough to swim the horses and soon their floundering upset the spring wagon. Lester was the only one of the party to reach safety.

Up to the time of this writing (Thursday morning) the body of the little boy, Wade Richardson, has not been recovered. The bodies of Mrs. Noonan and her mother were found Monday forenoon almost a mile below the ford, while the body of Mr. Noonan was not found until Wednesday The funeral of Mrs. Noonan and Mrs. Campbell were held Wednesday and hat of Mr. Noonan to-day (Thurs
